be refunded to all unsuccessful bidders at the end of the sale.

The machinery will be sold to highest bidders who should pay half of the bid amount immediately after the close of the sale and the other half within eight days after the communication of the confirmation of the higher authorities and remove the articles thereafter.

The sale is subject to the confirmation by the Chief Engineer who reserves for himself the right to reject any bid without assigning reasons.

In case any bidder fails to take possession of the machinary by paying the balance of bid amount as above, the machinery will be reauctioned at the risk of the original successful bidder who will be liable to make good all loss to Government. The deposit amount of final bid will be forfeited.

The decision of the Chief Engineer is final and legally binding in all matters regarding the sale.
